

July 2, 2017

Hebrews 5:1-10

Key Thought: Jesus, as High Priest, is to Aaron, the first High Priest of Israel.
1.	Jes	sus is a selection
	A.	The OT high priest was chosen from(v.1)
	B.	Jesus was by God (v. 5)
2.	Jes	sus has a superior
	A.	Because he was a man the OT high priest could identify with the people.
	В.	Jesus too is able to identify with our
3.	Jes	sus offered a
	A.	The OT high priest offered sacrifices for the sins of and the people.
	В.	Jesus' sacrifice was once and for (Heb 9:26)

si promisi Jesus, arrest, is anno 1980
menta no azione polici de di terre de la con-politicana a sept must the fitter frage, of side of set week. It ENULY O'RE COLOR
antine terrations become the same again and an 10 Folk

TIP Sheet (Take It Personal)

Use the below questions to aid you in making personal application of your study in the Word.

stu	dy in the Word.
1.	According to Hebrews 5:4 how was the Old Testament high priest selected?
2.	What was the major role of the Old Testament High Priest? See Leviticus 16:14-16.
3.	According to Hebrews 5:1-3 why is the Old Testament high priest able to sympathize with the weakness of the people?
4.	How would you define the meaning of "to sympathize"? What must be true in order for you to sympathize with another person?

that of Aaron or another high priest? If Christ never succumb to sin then how can he sympathize with us who have given in the temptation? (Hebrews 5:7-9) 6. How could you apply the first three beatitudes of the sermon of the mount to the ability to sympathize with others? See Mattle 5:3-5. 7. How do the first ten verses of Hebrews 5 add to your understaing of Hebrews 4:14-15. How might it add to your confidence approach Christ? 8. When we have sinned and are in trouble, or are dealing with the temptation to sin, we often hesitate to turn to God. We either think we can handle it on our own, or we feel the need to "clear up our act" before we approach Him. How can Christ's under-the mount to the ability to sympathize with others? See Matth 5:3-5. How do the first ten verses of Hebrews 5 add to your understaing of Hebrews 4:14-15. How might it add to your confidence approach Christ? When we have sinned and are in trouble, or are dealing with the temptation to sin, we often hesitate to turn to God. We either think we can handle it on our own, or we feel the need to "clear up our act" before we approach Him. How can Christ's understanding and sympathetic nature motivate you to turn to Him to day in times of temptation and trouble? 	5.	How can Christ's sympathy or identification with us be superior to that of Aaron or another high priest? If Christ never succumbed to sin then how can he sympathize with us who have given in to temptation? (Hebrews 5:7-9)
 the mount to the ability to sympathize with others? See Matth 5:3-5. How do the first ten verses of Hebrews 5 add to your understaing of Hebrews 4:14-15. How might it add to your confidence approach Christ? When we have sinned and are in trouble, or are dealing with the temptation to sin, we often hesitate to turn to God. We either think we can handle it on our own, or we feel the need to "clear up our act" before we approach Him. How can Christ's understanding and sympathetic nature motivate you to turn to Him to day in times of temptation and trouble?
ing of Hebrews 4:14-15. How might it add to your confidence approach Christ? 8. When we have sinned and are in trouble, or are dealing with the temptation to sin, we often hesitate to turn to God. We either think we can handle it on our own, or we feel the need to "clear up our act" before we approach Him. How can Christ's understanding and sympathetic nature motivate you to turn to Him to day in times of temptation and trouble?	6.	How could you apply the first three beatitudes of the sermon on the mount to the ability to sympathize with others? See Matthew 5:3-5.
temptation to sin, we often hesitate to turn to God. We either think we can handle it on our own, or we feel the need to "cleat up our act" before we approach Him. How can Christ's understanding and sympathetic nature motivate you to turn to Him to day in times of temptation and trouble?	7.	How do the first ten verses of Hebrews 5 add to your understanding of Hebrews 4:14-15. How might it add to your confidence to approach Christ?
	8.	think we can handle it on our own, or we feel the need to "clean up our act" before we approach Him. How can Christ's under- standing and sympathetic nature motivate you to turn to Him to-