"A Proverbs 23 Family"

Proverbs 23:19-35

Pastor Niall Philyaw

Discussion Questions

1. In honor of Father's Day, what good lessons has your father taught you?
2. What are the qualities of a good friend?
3. How do you know if your friends are self-indulgent? What happens with self-indulgent people over the years?
4. Did you always think of your parents as "old?" Why? Name some important lessons they have taught you over the years.
5. What does it look like to "spend money on truth?" What does it look like to "sell truth?"
6. What are things that your family gets excited about that may not be that important? What things do you celebrate that are truly important?
7. What have you learned about self control over the years?
8. How would you summarize the authors argument against sexual sin and alcoholism?
9. What did you hear or read this morning that might help your family? What will you work on individually or as a group?
