Prov. 12:18 –

Prov. 16:23 –

Prov. 25:12 –

3. Proverbs 22:6 says, “Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it.”
The key thought of this verse is to guide and train a child according to their ‘way’ or bent. That is, as we raise a child, we need to understand how God designed them – their personality, abilities and interests. No two children are exactly alike, and therefore need to be parented in a way that will be effective for them. The words ‘Train up’ carry the idea of creating a desire; providing discipline; setting aside for a special purpose.
