

- III. We can _____ is still _____ _____ even when _____
- A. The _____ of God _____
 - B. The _____ of God _____
 - C. Application: We must _____ fulfill _____

- IV. It is God _____
- A. God _____
 - B. God always _____

So What?

June 14, 2015

Selected Texts

Ruth — Woman of Commitment

Key Thought: God _____, though at times imperceptibly _____

I. Present _____ can _____

- A. Because of _____ we may _____

- B. Because of _____ we may _____

II. It is through _____ that our true _____

- A. Crisis always _____

- B. Ruth is _____

- C. Application: Be _____ how you make _____

TIP Sheet (Take It Personal)

Use the below questions to aid you in making personal application of your study in the Word.

Ruth— Woman of Commitment

Various Texts

1. Why did Naomi and her husband Elimelech leave Bethlehem and move to Moab? (Ruth 1:1-2)

2. Read the rest of chapter one. What happens to Naomi?

3. What was Naomi's response to the tragedy in her life? (Ruth 1:6-8)

4. What was Naomi's response to God? (Ruth 1:19_21)

Was she right in her response to God?

What has been your response during crises times?

5. Read Ruth's response to Naomi's request to leave her and go back to the country of Moab. (Ruth 1:16-18)

What are the different elements of her commitment?

How does her commitment motivate you to follow God?

6. The providence of God is huge in the life of Ruth. Read Ruth 2:1-11. How do you see the providence of God working in Ruth's life?

7. Where can you identify the hand of God's providence in your own life?

8. We often get so caught up in surviving life that we fail to view it from God's perspective. What can you take from Ruth and apply to your own situation? Read Romans 8:28-32