4.	Read verse 18. Is it a true picture of your life? Are there people that you are not at peace with? What can you do, (so far as it depends on you) that would possibly bring about peace?	Live Peaceably with All!
	In other words have you done all you can do?	The Beauty of Transformational Living
		February 21, 2016 Romans 12:17-21
5.	Verse 19 says "never avenge yourselves". Pastor Ed stated it "Let God even the score". When was a time you took matters in you own hands and avenged yourself? How did it work out? Was it the beauty of transformational living? Did it bring glory to God?	Key Thought: When God is renewing our minds it becomes possible to live peaceably with all.
		I. Liveeveryone. (v.17)
6.	Again in verse 19, why do you think God's wrath does a better job? What does Romans 3:23 and 5:9 reveal to us about ourselves?	II. Makeaccounts. (v.18)
7.	How would you restate the end of verse 20 "you will heap burning coals on his head."?	III. Let (v.19)
		IV
8.	When have you responded with kindness to an enemy? Were they surprised? How did they respond?	V

How will I put this into practice.

TIP Sheet (Take It Personal)

Use the below questions to aid you in making personal application of your study in the Word.

1. How many times is the word "to think" or a similar thought used in Romans 12?

What application should you make in relation to verse two?

2. The following question is from Day 17 of the prayer & fasting devotional. Think about a time when you mistreated someone and they responded with kindness and or forgiveness. How did their response affect you?

How could their response motivate you to do the same?

3. Pastor Ed mentioned the phrase "keep short accounts" in relation to verse 18. What does this mean to you? In what way(s) can you keep a short account? What is a danger of keeping long accounts?
