A. Heby the	5.	What are three consequences of walking through the door Christ has provided for you? (vv. 9-13)	Destiny
Are you experiencing the abundant life? What might be missing in your life? I. Identification of the True Shepherd (w. 1: A. He			I Amthe True Shepherd
I. Identification of the True Shepherd (w. 1- A. He	6.	Are you experiencing the abundant life?	March 13, 2016 John 10:1-18
B. Hehis sheep. C. His sheephim. 7. What does Jesus mean in verse 16 "I have other sheep that are not of this fold"? A. Those who use the door B. Those who use the door C. Those who use the door D. Those who use the door 8. How can you apply John 10:27-29 to your life? III. The True Shepherd is always the Good Shepherd (vv. 11) A. He for his own		What might be missing in your life?	I. Identification of the True Shepherd (vv. 1-5)
C. His sheephim. 7. What does Jesus mean in verse 16 "I have other sheep that are not of this fold"? 8. How can you apply John 10:27-29 to your life? 9. How do verses 11, 15, 17, 18 add to your understanding of Christ" destiny? 11. The True Shepherd is also the door which leads to			A. He by the
7. What does Jesus mean in verse 16 "I have other sheep that are not of this fold"? Mat does Jesus mean in verse 16 "I have other sheep that are not of this fold"? A. Those who use the door
7. What does Jesus mean in verse 16 "I have other sheep that are not of this fold"? A. Those who use the door			C. His sheep him.
A. Those who use the door B. Those who use the door C. Those who use the door D. Those who use the door III. The True Shepherd is always the Good Shepherd (vv. 11- A. He	7.	·	II. The True Shepherd is also the door which leads to (vv. 6-10)
C. Those who use the door			A. Those who use the door
B. How can you apply John 10:27-29 to your life? III. The True Shepherd is always the Good Shepherd			B. Those who use the door
8. How can you apply John 10:27-29 to your life? III. The True Shepherd is always the Good Shepherd (vv. 11-3) A. He			C. Those who use the door
8. How can you apply John 10:27-29 to your life? III. The True Shepherd is always the Good Shepherd
A. He	8.	How can you apply John 10:27-29 to your life?	··································
B. Hewith his own C. He has eyes 9. How do verses 11, 15, 17, 18 add to your understanding of Christ" D. He has E. He theand his			III. The True Shepherd is always the Good Shepherd (vv. 11-18
9. How do verses 11, 15, 17, 18 add to your understanding of Christ" destiny? C. He has eyes D. He has E. He		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	A. He for his own
9. How do verses 11, 15, 17, 18 add to your understanding of Christ" destiny? D. He has E. He	9.		B. He with his own destiny? E. Hethethe Key Thought: Jesus' and his			• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • Key Thought: Jesus'and his
			t. He the
			Key Thought: Jesus'and his
prove nim to be thewnom his snee			prove him to be thewhom his sheep

(vv. 1-5)

(vv. 11-18)

U.	TIP Sheet (Take It Personal) se the below questions to aid you in making personal application of your udy in the Word. In verse one, how would you describe a sheepfold or sheep pen? How was it used in Jesus's day?
2.	. Contrast the marks of the True Shepherd found in verses 1-10 with those who are false shepherds.
3.	. What does it mean to you that Jesus knows his people by name? (verse 3)
4.	. How did Pastor Ed define the meaning of the door of the sheep.
	(verse 9)