

Let Us Bow Down And Worship

October 15, 2017

Hebrews 12:18-19

Key Thought: Because Jesus is greater than anything else, there is nothing greater for us to do than _____ and _____

I. We worship because Jesus provides a better

_____ (vv. 18-24)

- A. The Old Covenant revealed the _____ gap between _____ and God's _____ (vv.18-20)
- B. The New Covenant provides access to the _____ of God. (vv. 22-24)

II. We worship Jesus because God has the _____

_____ (vv. 25-27)

- A. When you _____ to listen to God you do so at your own _____. (v.25)
- B. At God's word all that will remain is that which is _____ (vv. 26-27)

III. We are to worship through a lifestyle of _____ and _____ (v. 28)

- A. We worship with hearts filled with _____.
- B. We seek to offer _____ worship.

4. What do you think the author means by “refuse God”? (v.25) How have you refused to listen to God? Are you now in a state of refusal?
5. Verse 28 commands us to be grateful towards God. What are you grateful to God for? How does this gratitude express itself in your life?
6. Is there a need for more gratitude from you towards God?
7. Verse 28 says “let us offer to God acceptable worship, with reverence and awe”. We frequently use the word awesome to describe some fairly trivial things. What does the term “awe” mean to you?
8. In what ways are you in awe of God? Does it cause you to “bow down and worship”?
